"ONE TEAM, ONE MISSION"

Advancing to Better Serve The People

The Cumberland County Sheriff's Office is a full service law enforcement agency serving metropolitan and rural areas encompassing 658 square miles for a population of over 306,000 residents.

Cumberland County includes the cities, towns, communities and military bases of Fayetteville, Fort Bragg, Pope AFB, Eastover, Falcon, Godwin, Hope Mills, Linden, Spring Lake, Stedman, Vander and Wade which are all within the jurisdiction of the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office.

In 2007 the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office opened a highly advanced $4.8 million Training Center with classrooms outfitted with the latest technological advancements available for the staff and other training aids, such as, a NC Justice Academy approved

Driving Pad, an Indoor/Outdoor Firing Range with a Prism System firearm training simulator and an NC BLET POPAT (obstacle) course.

The Cumberland County Sheriff's Office operates an extraordinarily unique $36.9 million direct-supervision styled Detention Center located in downtown Fayetteville, NC. The 250,000 square foot facility provides dedicated beds for approximately 568 inmates and can be expanded to nearly 1,000 beds if necessary.

The architectural design of this state of the art facility offers advanced technology such as an automated fingerprinting identification system, staff dining hall, video arraignment, video visitation, an elaborate medical infirmary, the CCSO Magistrates Office and an individual courtroom housed within the facility.
